

2020/2021 Student Information Handbook

“Providing excellence in Dance Education in a positive, fun, loving, and encouraging environment.”

This handbook contains important information about our school.

To enhance communication, we are asking that you please read the handbook thoroughly. If you have any questions, please E-mail balletaviv@gmail.com or call the office at (985) 727-4445. Thanks!

Welcome to our school!

Dear Parents and Students:

The Conservatory of Ballet Aviv is a professional institution where students who seek an experience with dance can come to develop their knowledge, reach their full individual potential, and soar to excellence in the art form.

Over the next months our students will see their dreams begin to materialize, as their work ethic, creativity, discipline, strength, and spatial awareness will be stretched and developed. This experience will serve them well in all areas of their lives, while instilling in them a love of art, music, and dance.

This year will be a new and exciting one. The added classes and rehearsals for training in the various levels will serve our students and enhance their efforts at mastering the skills to achieve expert dancing. As many of you know, it is critical to educate our developing dancers as early as possible. The value of repetition and focus with great intention to succeed is a lesson that is a life skill as well. We hope all of you enjoy the journey and we hope this year is as rewarding for you as it will be for us.

Sincerely,

The Conservatory of Ballet Aviv

Tuition

Tuition is a School Year Fee that is broken down into 11 monthly installments August through June. Tuition is due the first day of every month, August through June, and will be automatically debited from credit or debit cards on the 1st of every month.

*Please note that all tuition and fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Tuition/Fee Payments

- Tuition will be automatically drafted on the first day of every month, August through June, from the debit or credit card on file.
- A 3% surcharge will be added to all credit/debit card transactions.
- There will be a $25 late fee added for tuition payments received after the 5th of each month.
- Tuition will be charged as usual on the regular schedule if classes transition to Zoom due to a Covid-19 outbreak or shutdown.
- Costume fees, Recital fees, and Picture Book fees* will be automatically drafted according to the schedule included in this handbook. Please refer to the Performance Information section of this handbook.
- Each student is holding a place in the class. Any account that has a student drop a class must give the office notice. The student will be obligated to pay for the next two (2) months tuition.
- Please understand that COBA does not permit any account to continue with past due payments. Therefore, any account not paid in full by the 15th of the month will be placed in our inactive file and the student(s) will not be allowed to attend class(es) until the account is brought current.
- Tuition payments and all remaining fees (Registration Fees, Late Fees, Costume Fees, leotard payment, etc.) are non refundable and must be current in order for the student to participate in his/her scheduled classes.
- Costume Deposits and Recital Fees will be automatically charged to credit/debit cards on file on the following schedule (unless other arrangements are made by the office):
 - Costume Deposits will be automatically charged to credit/debit cards on file on September 15, October 15, and November 15 (Amounts are determined by class, please see page for Costume Amounts)
 - Recital Fee ($135 per student) will be broken into two payments charged on February 15th and March 15, 2022.
 - Owed accounts must have a $0.00 balance before the student may participate in any performance. When costumes are distributed, accounts must have a $0.00 balance for the year before a recital costume can be received.

Class Uniform

COBA classroom uniforms are required and must be worn in all classes, as neatness and discipline are important components of dance. Hair should be neatly secured in a bun at all times. However, if hair is short, a white headband is necessary. Faculty cannot be expected to dress a student or fix student's hair. Students who are not in proper uniform for class may have to observe class and may not be able to participate. No warm-ups are to be worn during class or rehearsal. No jewelry is permitted besides small earrings. Any other type of jewelry could be a hazard or a distraction while dancing. Students who arrive in class without hair in a bun will receive a hair kit and a $5.00 charge will be placed on the student's account.

Why does COBA have a dress code?

The dress code exists for a variety of reasons:

- It is part of the tradition and etiquette of ballet.
- It is part of the discipline, required to excel in dance.
- It builds self-esteem.
- It builds class unity.
- It is necessary for the teacher to see and correct technical mistakes.

Hair MUST be neatly secured: in a bun with hairspray, a hairnet, and hair pins for ballet and jazz. A ponytail is acceptable for Musical Theatre and Contemporary. Student will not be allowed to take class if their hair is not appropriate for class. Short hair must be pulled back with a white headband.

Class Etiquette

The study of ballet follows a rich history in tradition and culture; the School, as a professional institution, expects students and parents to be aware of this and to demonstrate respect to proper ballet etiquette and requirements as well as to the faculty and staff of the School. All dancers are expected to respect their teachers, their fellow dancers, and their art form. Talking is not permitted during any class or rehearsal. The instructor may choose to open the studio door in order for younger students, waiting for their class, to have exposure the older dancers. IF THE STUDIO DOOR IS OPEN, PARENTS, FRIENDS, AND OTHER STUDENTS MAY NOT TALK TO THE DANCERS OR INSTRUCTOR IN THE REHEARSAL OR CLASS. Dancers should devote their full attention to the instructor and the class material. If a student does not follow the rules of in-class behavior, he or she will be asked to sit down for 5 minutes. If this becomes a recurring problem, parents will be contacted to discuss what is expected behavior in class. Excessive absences or tardiness can severely hamper a student's progress, so please see that classes are attended on time and regularly. All classes at COBA are designed to create a healthy, comfortable learning environment. Guests can be distracting to young dancers, and parents in the classroom can unknowingly place undue pressure on their children. Observers are not permitted in classes unless invited, however there is an observation window that will be opened the last class of every month.

Class Make up Policy

Please fill out the Absence Form under the CURRENT STUDENT tab of the website for any class absences. Students are expected to attend all scheduled classes and rehearsals, and are expected to notify the school (in advance of class day) if they will be absent. No refunds or credit will be made for unattended classes. COBA takes class work very seriously, and the accumulation of absences and tardiness will be strongly considered in the evaluation process for the child's promotion to the next level. We want to ensure that each student has every opportunity available to achieve success in our school, and consistency in training is an important component of this. We do realize that there are circumstances where classes will be missed, and we have established a class make up policy. Each student must make up missed classes within the same calendar month, starting on the first of the month. Classes missed in the last week of the month will carry over to the next month for make-ups; however, make-ups for missed classes do not accrue from month to month. Each make up class will have to be pre-arranged with COBA and students may not attend class for make up without prior arrangement. COBA will observe certain holidays and vacations. This list is located under the School Calendar in this handbook as well as online.

Please keep in mind that there will be no make-up classes for holidays, parades, or closings due to inclement weather.

School Rules

Dance shoes may not be worn outside of the studio building.

The Conservatory of Ballet Aviv reserves the right to dismiss from any class or classes any student, or any student whose parent(s), either actively or passively, refuses to cooperate with the rules, structure, faculty and staff, and/or spirit of the School.

•The Conservatory of Ballet Aviv reserves the right to dismiss from the school any student, or any student whose parent(s):

- Tears down the spirit of the school by chain gossip, negative behavior, abusive communication to other students, COBA directors, teachers, or COBA staff, or through any means including social media, text message, e-mail, and/or phone.
- Who challenge and/or disrespect the directors, faculty, teachers, staff, accounting department of COBA or other students.

During observation week. Parents are simply permitted to observe, and are not permitted to discuss or indulge in critical conversation about any child, the teacher, or any other staff member. This brings down the spirit of the school and students who wish to enjoy their training experience at COBA begin to feel uncomfortable in class. This will not be tolerated.

REMEMBER- We encourage parents to think about the kind of learning environment that COBA is providing. On the contrary, if a parent talks highly and respectfully about their child's teacher, the school, as well as their classmates, the child will enjoy their training and be able to focus and develop with a strong, teachable attitude. Parents who speak negatively about COBA, the teachers, and staff similarly reflects in the child's behavior displayed in class and stunts their overall progress.

Restroom Use during class times: Please see Covid guidelines*

The classroom may be locked during classes in order to prevent disruptive traffic in and out of the studio. The restroom is off limits to parents and siblings while classes are in session. Our classes are back to back, and it is unprofessional and disruptive to have traffic coming through the classroom. We strive to efficiently utilize the entire class hour, therefore we request your cooperation with these rules - please do not knock on the door and ask to use the restroom during class times.

Flooring:

Parents and students siblings are not allowed past the studio entrance door. Our dance floor is a professional rubber Marley used by all professional studios and companies. It is designed for dancing and to protect students feet and legs. Street shoes can track in dirt, gum, and other foreign debris, and break down and destroy this floor.

Dance shoes may not be worn outside of the studio building. It reduces the life of the shoes and it can bring in hazardous materials into the studio that can damage the flooring and/or cause injuries for the dancers.

Student Pick-Up: Please see Covid guidelines*

Students should be picked up no later than 10 minutes after each class. COBA staff is unable to supervise children before or after class. It is neither safe nor acceptable to have unsupervised young children inside or outside the premises. Please help us ensure the safety of your child.

It is very important that parents and caregivers dropping off their child must make certain that their child enters the building before driving off.

Lobby: Please see Covid guidelines*

Unless parents are with Lower School Students (LEVELS PRE-PRIMARY, PRIMARY, AND LEVEL I) , we request that the COBA lobby/student lounge be reserved for drop off/Pick Up before and after class time. We ask that parents and siblings of dancers would make space for the dancers by not standing or sitting in the lobby.

Hydration - pack a water bottle:

Dance is a strenuous activity. Students should pack a bottle of water with them to ensure proper hydration. If a student needs water and does not have a water bottle with them, the studio may provide a bottle (given bottles are available) and the student will be billed $3.00 each.

Studio Etiquette

- Please have dance shoes on with bag in hand ready to enter class when the classroom door opens.
- No excessive noise.
- No littering - trash cans are provided.
- Keep food in lobby to a minimum.
- No street shoes in classrooms.
- Stay out of “employee only” areas unless invited or permission granted by a staff member.
- No food or drinks (except water in a bottle) in classrooms.
- While waiting to enter class, do not obstruct the traffic coming and going in the hall. Keep to the sides by the wall with your bags.
- Cover-ups that cover both top and bottom must be worn over leotards when entering and leaving the premises (to promote modesty) No bare feet. NO DANCE SHOES OUT OF THE BUILDING.
- Parents please do not allow your children to draw on the walls, tuition box, items in the lobby, etc.

Late Arrivals and Tardiness Please see Covid guidelines*

Students are expected to be prompt for class. Excessive tardiness may result in a consultation with the Artistic Directors. Late students should wait by the door and wait until the music stops before entering the classroom. A student who is more than 10 minutes late should wait at the door quietly, without interrupting, and wait for the instructor to acknowledge them.

If a student misses the first few exercises in class, he or she runs a risk of injury by not being properly warmed up. The instructor will decide whether or not it is safe for the student to participate. The student may be asked to watch class. Parents and students should not interrupt class to give the instructor an explanation of the reason for their tardiness. If the instructor needs to know, the instructor will ask or contact you at an appropriate time.

Communication

The studio mainly communicates via email. Please make certain that the correct email address has been received by COBA, and check that COBA communications are not going to your spam folder (this is not unusual).*

The directors and instructors of The Conservatory of Ballet Aviv value and encourage input from parents and students. The time between classes is not ideal for discussions due to time restraints and confidentiality. We ask that you please contact us by E-mail conservatoryofballetaviv@gmail.com or balletaviv@gmail.com

As stated, most studio announcements and Information handouts will be sent through e-mail. These usually answer frequently asked questions, and supply important information on events. We may also post these handouts in the lobby area and on the student page of the website, and we ask that check the board or website regularly to stay up to date.

It is the parent /student’s responsibility to stay up to date on announcements and information handed out or sent through e-mail. CHECK YOUR SPAM FOLDER REGULARLY.

If you have sent an email and did not receive a response, please re-send. COBA receives an abundance of emails and yours may have been inadvertently over-looked.

Meetings:

Parents who wish to have a meeting with a faculty member of COBA must email a detailed request explaining the reason/issue. The Directors and staff will not meet with a parent without prior knowledge of the subject matter. It will then be up to the faculty/staff member’s discretion to choose to hold a meeting based on the subject matter. In order to minimize the risk of miscommunication, PLEASE DO NOT MEET TEACHER AT THE DOOR AFTER CLASS. Parents who have questions must call the office or present their question through e-mail.

Performance Information Please see Covid guidelines*

The Year-End Production Date will be June 17-18, 2022 at the Columbia Theatre for The Performing Arts in Hammond Louisiana (tentative).

Participation in the Year-End Production is optional. We encourage all students to take part in the production as dance is a performing art, and we view performance as part of dance education. The dates, times, location, structure, and order of the recital performance are determined by the Directors and venue availability. Students are expected to attend all rehearsals. Recital rehearsals are very important. If a student is not attending classes when recital rehearsals begin, he or she is inhibiting the progress of the choreography and the rehearsals themselves. Students may be asked to schedule private lessons to catch them up on what they missed in class (private lesson fee will be added).

Absences during the recital season (after January 1, 2022) are considered disrespectful to faculty and fellow students. Therefore, more than 3 absences (without a medical excuse or pre-approval by the Directors) after January 1, 2022 could result in dismissal from the recital and no refund will be granted. This causes necessary adjustment to choreography and spacing, as well as student placement which may involve partners.

If you agree for your child to participate in the recital and then later withdraw your child from the production, you will be charged a $50.00 fee per dance for the resetting of choreography. Students who withdraw from the production after March 1st (Without an approved excuse) may be put on recital probation for the following year. This is a very serious matter that impacts the entire class and will not be taken lightly.

Volunteers are necessary for the production to be successful. Parents are expected to volunteer, in some capacity, with COBA's Year-End Production (provided that your child is participating) or pay a fee to cover cost of replacement help. COBA much prefers voluntary parent participation as a helper in some capacity.

Performance Fees:

Fees associated with student's participation in our Year End Production are the following:

1. Costume Fee

COBA divides the student's "total" costume charges into 3 payments as an option. The total amount can either be paid in full (Sept. 15th) OR in (3) equal payments.

THREE PAYMENTS FOR RECITAL COSTUME DEPOSITS ARE DUE ON THE FOLLOWING DATES:

1st Costume Deposit Due = September 15th

2nd Costume Deposit Due = October 15th

3rd Costume Deposit Due = November 15th

A late fee will be added for any payments received after November 15th . Separate costumes are required for Ballet, Jazz, Tap, Pointe, Company, Musical Theatre/Performing Arts, and Contemporary which may result in several costume fees. Costumes are ordered in bulk. If a student's costume fee is not paid, a costume will not be ordered. PLEASE SEE THE TABLE IN THE NEXT SECTION FOR COSTUME DEPOSIT AMOUNTS.

2. Recital Fee

The recital fee covers all of the costs involved with producing the recital performance.

The Recital Fee $135 per dancer is due no later than March 15th, 2021. This fee is divided into two payments: February 15th and March 15th.

3. Keepsake Program Picture Book Fee (optional)

The Keepsake Program Picture Book Fee is an optional fee that allows the student's picture to appear in this special Recital book. The Recital Keepsake Program Book serves as a yearbook for our student.

More information about this fee will be handed out in a Recital Information Packet in January 2022s.

Observation Week Please see Covid guidelines*

The observation window will be open for the last class of every month. THE OPENING OF THE OBSERVATION WINDOW CAN ONLY OCCUR DURING THE LAST WEEK OF THE MONTH (except for the Months of August, May, and June).

Rules during Observation week...

- In order to clearly see the class operation without the excitement of “mom is watching!”, We suggest parents keep this date secret from their child.
- Family and Friends of Students: PLEASE DO NOT INTERRUPT A CLASS. Our teachers are instructed to continue teaching if someone interrupts class. This is to prevent interference with the training of students and loss of valuable class time.
- During observation week. Parents are not permitted to discuss or indulge in critical or negative conversation about any child, the teacher, or any other staff member. This brings down the spirit of the school and students who wish to enjoy their training experience at COBA begin to feel uncomfortable in class.
- Only staff and students are allowed in classrooms.
- Parents, siblings, and friends are not allowed in empty classrooms.
- Children that are not in classes must be kept under control, quiet, and out of classrooms.
- Children not in classes must not be allowed to play outside or in the parking lot. Unsupervised children and parking lots are not a good combination.
- No running or horseplay, which can cause injury or disturb classes.
- Children not in classes cannot be left unattended.
- Please do not throw dirty diapers in the studio lobby wastebasket.
- Failure to adhere by these rules may be called to adult and/or children's attention by a staff member.

Lost and Found

COBA is not responsible for items lost, misplaced, or left unattended in studio or at the theatre. Please put the student's name on ALL of your belongings. Items found in the studio at the end of the day will be placed in the lost and found box, which is the ottoman in the lobby. Items in the lost and found box will be taken out at the end of the month, and no longer accessible, so please check it as soon as you lose something.

Class Cancellations Please see Covid guidelines*

When conditions beyond our control necessitate (parade route closing the shopping center, etc..), we reserve the right to cancel classes while making our best effort to notify those students involved. In the event of inclement weather, COBA will follow the St. Tammany Parish public school closings.

Private Lessons

Private Coaching is offered for approved students. Private Coaching is designed for student technical improvement and are not to replace regular classes. Please contact the office for Coaching Lesson fees. Private Coaching Fees must be payed in advance of the scheduled lesson. To cancel a Private Coaching session, a 24 hour advance notice with the teacher is required. If not the student will be charged for that lesson.

 - Regular Tuition rates will apply and Tuition will be charged on the normal schedule.
 - Students are required dress as they would for classes at the studio - with hair in up and in their uniform.

Recital

The nature of a recital performance requires nearly a full year of planning. Please understand that Recital Fees and Costume Fees are non-refundable. We do plan on holding a regular Recital Performance at the end of our school year this year. However, we are in unprecedented times, and no one knows what the future will look like. If necessary we will make necessary steps to have a recital performance at a later date or at a different venue which may include the studio.
